Open It Up

- Why are you most thankful for your mom?
- Where do we get preconceived ideas on how we're to act? How can those expectations be dangerous?
- What is a preconceived idea that you have bought into in some area of your life?

Dig In Deeper

- How can we avoid buying into incorrect preconceived ideas of how we're supposed to act or look?
- What does Pastor Matt mean that, as parents, we are in a "partnership with Jesus"? What does that mean practically?
- How is your relationship with your mom similar to your relationship with the Lord? How is it different?
- For you, what does it mean to "honor" your mom today?

Think It Through

- When you fail to meet the expectations of preconceived notions, how do you think God views you? How do you make sure you see yourself as the Lord does - not as feel you compare to the expectations?
- Based on today's teaching How do you need to be praying differently for your child(ren) and your job as their parent?
- Based on Pastor's Matt's mention of the "blame game" how do you need to be praying for your parents? How do you act and respond differently to your parents?
