Open It Up

- What was your most favorite/memorable gift you ever received (Christmas, birthday, anniversary, etc.)?
- When was a time that you regretted giving something to someone?
- When was a time that a gift was given to you with no strings attached?

Dig In Deeper

- What are some practical examples "God's extravagant grace" - of how God gives that you've seen in your life or in the life of someone else?
- Why do you think we struggle in giving with no strings attached?
- How does Romans 2:4 "...that the goodness of God leadeth thee to repentance" fit with today's study?
- How do you feel when you consider that we could be the only example of God's grace and goodness to those that we come in contact with?

Think It Through

- How can you protect against having an attitude of seeing a "gift" as a payment - where you expect something in return?
- Who is someone that we need to seek forgiveness, or a situation that needs to be made right where you gave with strings attached?
- Who is one person in the next week that you can give to extravagantly - bless them practically?
- Think through some of the examples where the Lord has given to you extravagantly and thank Him for those gifts.
