Open It Up

- Describe a time while growing up that you were given great freedom. How did it turn out for you?
- What was your thought/opinion of the church when you were growing up?

Dig In Deeper

- Are there advantages of having different models of church structure as described by Pastor Matt? What are they? These differences, are they complimentary or contradictory to the character of Christ? Why?
- When we have opportunities to be involved in serving the body and we don't take advantage of them, what is the cost? How does it affect the body? Why do we sometimes shy away from serving people?
- What do you feel are practical examples of how the church "equips and enables you" to serve the body so you can be the church where ever you go?

Think It Through

- Spend time praying for the pastors, "G7" and leadership of Edgewater Christian Fellowship this week.
- What opportunities has the Lord brought your way or equipped you for where you can bless the body? What steps do you need to take to be responsive to that leading?
- Is there a time or area where you find yourself more interested in being served rather than serving? Are there changes that Lord would have you make in your attitude towards that situation?
