

Bible Summary-Acts 24:24-26

Basic Evangelism

Paul is in prison waiting for his trial. He is called before Felix the governor and shares the good news by telling Felix about righteousness, self-control and coming judgment. These three compose the basic way to lead people to an understanding why we need faith in Jesus.

Scriptures: Acts 24:24-27; Matthew 5:27-30; Romans 12:18-20; 1 Timothy 1:15; Romans 5:8, 2 Corinthians 3:18, 12:9

Bible Questions & Application

(These are meant to aid in facilitating conversation.
There is no obligation to run through every listed question.)

1. How did Sunday's teaching challenge your thinking?
2. Is it possible to have a sense of right or wrong without a standard? Why or why not?
 - a. Where do your standards come from?
 - b. Where do cultural standards come from?
3. How can you uphold Biblical standards in a world of shifting standards?
4. What are some areas in your life you need to exercise greater self-control?
 - a. What would help you exercise more self-control in those areas?
5. How does the coming judgment of God show His goodness?
6. How does the coming judgment of God help us to forgive others?
7. What did you think of Matt's definition of sin, "sin is doing life wrong"?
 - a. If sin is doing life wrong, what is doing life right?
8. After hearing Sunday's message, will it affect the way you share the gospel? If so, how?