

January 7, 2024

Look to the Interest of Others

Philippians 2:1-11

We all have broken pieces in us that cause us to strive to fill the “glory vacuum” in our souls. Doing so is where so much of the conflict in our lives comes from. Paul encourages us to follow after Jesus and see that the way to the top is to become the least.

Scriptures: Philippians 2:1-11, 2 Thessalonians 2:16

Community Group Questions

- The Bible is God's manual for our lives. Why are we so often reluctant to use it?
- What does it mean for Christians to be “like minded”? (Phil. 2:2)
- What are the benefits of approaching God as a “child”?
- How do you change the disposition of your mind? (Phil. 2:5)
- “Each of us has a vacuum of significance.”
- What are the benefits/challenges of counting “others more significant than yourselves”? (Phil. 2:3)
- “We believe that success and its cousin money will make us secure, important and happy. But it’s time to tell the truth about the high number of people who have used all their means to achieve money, power, and glory - and then self-destruct.” Harriet Rubin
- How do we find unity through humility?