BackTrack – Replaying God’s Ancient Prophetic Voices – On The Run

Summary: Everyone knows the story of Jonah and the whale. However, most of our mental pictures are from Veggie Tales and distort the incredible message of this prophet. Jonah isn’t about Nineveh, whales or dying plants; it is a mirror for the reader’s heart.

Scripture – Jonah 1:1-17, 4:1-11; 2 Kings 14:25; Genesis 50:20; Psalm 119:68; 2 Timothy 2:13; Hebrews 12:6; Romans 4:5

Community Group Discussion

- When have I run to avoid doing something that God has called you to do?
- Why do we, as believers, impose our righteousness over other’s forgiveness?
- Why do we see others as “some who do” and “some who don’t” deserve the restoration and forgiveness of Christ?
- Tell about a time God sent a “fish” your way to bring you back to faithfulness.
- “Every sin has a storm.”
- “There is no private sin.”
- “You will know who your God is by who you cry out to in the midst of a storm.”
- How do we use the story of Jonah as a mirror to reflect on our heart?
- Why do I care for things more than the people God has placed around me?
- How do you know when you have quenched the Spirit?
- Who are your Ninevites?
