BackTrack – Replaying God’s Ancient Prophetic Voices

God’s Wrath

Summary: Nahum is the sequel to Jonah. The Ninevites have repented of their repentance and have become a national bully. God’s longsuffering runs out and in its place is God’s wrath. Nahum forces us to wrestle with how to respond to God’s anger.

Scripture – Nahum; Revelation 16:1-21; Acts 9:4; Hebrews 12:15

Community Group Discussion

Introduction

- “There is a point where God’s patience ends.” How can that bring us hope?
- Why do we struggle with God being long-suffering?

The Responses (Angelic, Earth Dwellers’, Altar’s)

- What is your response to God’s wrath?
- In what ways does the enemy try to make us doubt God’s goodness?
- “In painful or difficult days we either join the Altar of Calvary or the Altar of Anger.” When things happen that we don’t like, why do we lash out at God?
- “Rather than being angry at God, we should be angry with God.”
- “The Cross is proof that God does care for us!”
