BackTrack – Replaying God’s Ancient Prophetic Voices

Why God?

Summary: When life gets dark can Christians ask why? We looked at three of God’s prophetic voices - Habakkuk, Job and Jeremiah - to learn how to wrestle well in the dark night of the soul.

Scripture – Habakkuk 1:1-13, 3:17-19; Job 9:22-24, 13:15, 19:25, 23:10; Jeremiah 11:21, 12:1-5, 15:10,17-18, 20:7-18, 23:5-6, 26:7-14; Psalm 22, 23

Community Group Discussion

Introduction

- “Is it okay to say, ‘why’ to God?”

Habakkuk

- What is a correct way to question God?
- Can you talk about a time where you think God allowed “Babylonians” into your life to refine your faith?

Job

- What’s the difference between “child-like faith” (Ps. 23) and “fidelity of faith” (Ps. 22)?
- “There is a kind of faith that only grows in the darkness.”
- Like Job, have you ever been in a season where you seriously questioned God’s faithfulness?
- How can indifference towards God develop?

Jeremiah

- Why would God allow the wicked to prosper?
- Why does God allow Jeremiah chapter 20 to be in the Bible?
- “God can handle what I’m bringing; I can handle whatever God is bringing.”
- Why is the purity of our faith likened to gold in the Bible?

Closing

- “Don’t forsake in the dark what God has shown you in the light.”
- What is God’s purpose in our tests?
- Is God your goal?
