BackTrack – Replaying God’s Ancient Prophetic Voices

Spirit Surprise

Summary: Ezekiel is one of the most colorful prophets. His actions, words, and visions are both mysterious and marvelous. Chapter one set the tone for the entire book. It is a shock to Ezekiel and a comfort for every person that feels exiled.

Scripture – Ezekiel 1:1-28, 3:15; Isaiah 6:1-4; Genesis 28:12-17; 1 Kings 18-19; Luke 4:18-19, 15; Deuteronomy 8:1-6

Community Group Discussion

Four Living Creatures (1:4-14)

- Has God revealed Himself to you in an unusual way when you were in a difficult season?
- “Do you treat God like a trust fund?” What do you do when you think God hasn’t answered your prayers?
- What does it mean to be set on fire by His holiness?

Wheels (1:15-21)

- What does Ezekiel 1:15-21 tell us about God?
- “God whispers into our souls, ‘Do you want to join me?’”

God Himself (1:26-28)

- Why/how do we limit God?
- What is God’s protocol when approached by sinners?
- What are the desert times for?
- “Do we trust God to show up at the right time, in the right way, exactly when we need it?”
