

October 06, 2024

Origins – Remember

Summary: The oldest written document of the New Testament is 1 Thessalonians. It gives us the oldest foundational principles of the church. 1 Thessalonians begins by turning the clock back to remember how the gospel saves and changes pagans.

Scripture – 1 Thessalonians 1:1-5; 2 Timothy 4:10; Colossians 1:27; 2 Corinthians 3:18, 13:5; Galatians 5:17; Psalm 73; Deuteronomy 7:6-8; Romans 10:14; 1 Corinthians 2:14; Romans 1:16

Community Group Discussion

- Our relationship with Jesus “is not a transaction.”
- “The human brain can’t respond to anxiety and gratitude at the same time, which means it’s either one or the other.”
- “When you believe something, it will affect how you live.”
- What are the benefits/challenges of sharing your battles with others? Share a battle you’re currently facing.
- “When you squeeze a Christian, Christ should come out.”
- Why is it important to have a balance of word and power? (v5)
- “Your morals won’t bring people to Christ.”
- “We cannot argue someone into the Kingdom.”
- What’s the difference between “the gospel” and “my gospel”?