Origins – Societal Sex

Summary: Ancient Greeks and Romans had a drastically different view of what was allowed sexually. The good news is the Gospel has redefined sex for the entire world and in its sunrise has protected the most vulnerable in a society.

Scripture – 1 Thessalonians 4:1-8; 1 Corinthians 6:13; Genesis 2:24-25; Galatians 3:28; SOS 7:7-8, 5:11-16; Matthew 5:27-30

Community Group Discussion

- How did the gospel change the cultural perspective of sex?
- “Men act like slobs, women act like men, and children get run over.”
- “If sex is just physical, why are people so broken years after the abuse?”
- “Every man knocking on a brothel door is seeking the heart of God, but is in the wrong place.”
- “Sex is never just fun; it is taking you on a journey either to heaven or hell.”
- “Sex outside of marriage is like eating food and vomiting it up.”
- How can we practically push back on what culture is dismantling?
