Christmas Marvel

Summary: In the hustle and bustle of the Christmas holidays we can forget the supernaturally wondrousness of the birth of King Jesus. Re-read the Bible's presentation and allow God to rekindle wonder.

Scripture – Matthew 1:18-2:2, 13:57-58; Luke 1:5-20, 2:5-14, 18:1-4; Acts 2:17

Community Group Discussion

- “The religion of America today is science.”
- What are the dangers of being numb to the supernatural in the Christmas story?
- Why should we marvel and wonder at the supernatural birth of Christ?
- How has God used natural circumstances to achieve supernatural results in your life?
- Zechariah was in a “God space” when the angel spoke to him. Can you describe a time when the Lord spoke to you?
- As a Christian, what are the challenges/benefits of having a supernatural view of the world?
- Has God ever spoken to you through dreams?
- Have you had an encounter with an angel?
- “Our belief matters to God.” (Matthew 13:57-58)
- Challenge: create a prayer journal.

Merry Christmas!
